Amsterdam Airport
Hotel and Conference Center

Professionals in Healthcare Business

Sheraton Amsterdam Airport Hotel & Conference Center is a contemporary haven in a prime location. The hotel is only a short three minute walk away from the airport's arrivals and departures hall and 20 minutes away from the city center.

The Netherlands is home to number of teaching hospitals, cancer research facilities and other medical institutions. A number of these institutions can be found in Utrecht and Leiden, both of which are only a short train ride away from Schiphol Airport.

The privacy of our guests is a top priority for our staff, and we take great care to ensure that guests enjoy full anonymity while meeting or staying in our hotel. Sheraton is transparent in providing the split of the Day Delegate Rate and offers special healthcare menu's in order to meet set budgets. The hotel has an addenda specialist in house.

Sheraton Amsterdam Airport Hotel & Conference Center has been assessed by Healthcare-Venues.com as suitable for meetings & events within the healthcare sector.
