HOTEL ROCHECHOUART

AU N°55 DU BD DE ROCHECHOUART À PARIS

At the foot of the world-famous hill of Montmartre, the Hotel Rochechouart welcomes you into its unique world, a place that is modern and deliciously retro, friendly and intimate... Since 1929, this hotel's majestic Art Deco facade has embodied the ambiance of a Paris that is timeless, elegant and alluring. Like the artists, adventure seekers and backpackers from around the world who have flocked to it over the years, it's time for you to enjoy the hospitality of this legendary address.

- 9 minutes' walk from Sacré Coeur
- 7 minutes' walk from Moulin Rouge
- 20 minutes' walk from Opera Garnier

Like the great hotels of the 1920s, the Rochechouart is an essential place to experience from early morning to sunset, here in the heart of the vibrant Montmartre district.

A gourmet locally sourced breakfast, a drink in the library or on the hotel rooftop, a dinner in the restaurant or a well-deserved rest in your room... Upon your arrival and throughout your stay you will taste simple pleasures and a warm welcome in this refined establishment.

Le Restaurant

Whether it's Parisians looking for an excellent meal, enchanted tourists, groups of friends or couples enjoying a romantic break...

As it was during the Belle Époque, the restaurant at the Rochechouart catches the rhythm of the beating heart of the boulevard.

As soon as you step inside, you will be seduced by the Art Deco decor with its mirrors, its alabaster luminaires and plush banquettes. Our a la carte menu ensures you will be spoiled for choice among the great classics of French and bourgeois cuisine.

Here, you will taste good, generous dishes and relish superb flavours. Bon appetit!

OPINION

One day, 1,000 years from now, when they dig up this era, archaeologists will surely ask how was it that a great power called America set out to make the Middle East more like itself — embracing pluralism and the rule of law — and ended up instead becoming more like the Middle East — introducing its worst tribal mores and introducing a whole new level of lawlessness? Middle Easterners may call their big tribes “Shiites” and “Sunnis” and “Democrats” and “Republicans,” but they each seem to operate increasingly with a conformist, us-vs.-them mind-set, albeit at different intensity levels. Extreme tribalism has proliferated
